Superintendent E. L. Bowsher

The problem of providing housing facilities and faculty direction in the next few years will be the immediate and pressing duty of our chief executive, Superintendent E. L. Bowsher. May the wisdom and forethought of his past experience guide him in the future. To him the Senior Class of Nineteen Fifty-Three extend their appreciation and regard, wishing him good luck in every venture.

Principle Loy W. Rusie

Amid the complexities of the modern living the school represents to the youth of our community security, permanence, and a plan not only for practical but also for inspirational behavior. To function adequately in order to shape the program of education to meet the needs of our young people, the principal of a high school is daily challenged. At Libbey Principal Loy W. Rusie has met this challenge with excellence. As we are graduating, the Senior Class of Nineteen Fifty-Three wish to express our devotion and gratitude to him for his kindly interest in all of us, for his conscientious administration, and for his warm hearted cooperation in all our affairs.

MISS ELLA FELLER

DEDICATION

An educational background enriched by travel, plus a constant interest in and enthusiasm for classroom teaching, makes any teacher a valuable part of a school's progress. As we observe the record of Miss Ella Feller, instructor of Social Studies at Libbey High School, we know that her qualifications for excellent work have been well established. A native of Toledo, Miss Feller was graduated from Toledo Central High School and Toledo University, from which she received the degrees of B.S. in Education and M.A. in History. Subsequently she attended, at various times, the Universities of Wisconsin, Ohio State, and Mexico. She also did work at Michigan State Normal, at Ypsilanti, and at Woman's College, Denver, and Greeley College in Colorado. Her hobby of traveling has taken Miss Feller into many interesting places, like Europe, Guatemala, Mexico, Canada, and Alaska, the latter both by boat and by the Alaskan Highway. Incidentally, she has visited fifteen national parks in the United States, Canada, and Mexico. In her years at Libbey Miss Feller has been zealous and devoted in her work with boys and girls. She has been loyal to the principles of our school and enthusiastic in the performance of all her educational activities. Thus it is with respect and admiration that the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred Fifty-Three dedicate this volume of the Edelian to Miss Ella Feller.

Miss Gertrude Payne

The highest praise that can come to any teacher is to live in the hearts of her pupils. At the end of her teaching career Miss Gertrude Payne has much that is lovely to remember and much that has been accomplished to be proud of. She has taught and inspired literally thousands of boys and girls; her enthusiasms have been high and profit showing in school, church and community work; and her consideration has cheered and comforted many, especially hundreds of service men who have received her friendly letters. Spending her life for others, she has achieved her ideal of service. To her is extended the love and best wishes of everyone in Libbey High School.

EDELIAN

There was no one at Libbey who was not concerned in some way with the 1953 edition of the Edelian. It is the yearly record of events and activities at Libbey. The cover was kept a secret until the senior banquet, when seniors received their books. The next day is officially known as Edelian Day, and everyone was busy receiving and signing books.

The success of the Edelian was largely due to the ability of Miss Ruth Dusha, who directed the students; Mr. Charles Martin as business director, whose workers sold a record number of Edelians; and Principal Loy W. Rusie, who advised and planned the Edelian activities for the year. The co-editors for the year were Marolyn Collins and Barbara Walker; faculty editors were Sue Miller and Sandra Brown; the senior editors included Sue Jordan, Phyl Joan Orbesen, and Sharon O'Donnell; and Bob Mentzer was financial editor. June Shepler edited the snapshots; the clubs were edited by Mitzi Kohring, Jackie Noss, Bobbie Simons, and Ronnie Long; and Doris Batch and Larry Herold were layout editors. Class editors were Pat Mallory and Gladys Jeakle, and Tom Funka and Bernie Wineland in charge of athletics. In the business department Jeanne Pommeranz was advertising manager, and Sue Jordan managed the circulation.

CRYSTAL

Day after day Room 215 is filled with activity as the ever alert Crystal staff is on the job. Under the direction of Miss Florence Gerdes, the Crystal strives "to work for a more democratic paper which will be of interest and use to the whole school." Improvements in our school paper, of which we are justly proud, include "bylines," the monthly inquiring reporter, and membership in the National Scholastic Press Association.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the coveted desires of many a Libbey student. Directed by Miss Jean Gilbert, the officers—Jim Reardon, president; Bob Mentzer, vice president; Marcia Bruggeman, secretary; Bobbie Simons, treasurer—led the club through the months of 1952-53. The society's high ideals of scholarship, leadership, character, and service were before them at all times.

During the year the National Honor Society sponsored many activities. To the students in the Libbey auditorium, Mr. Joseph R. Scalzo, wrestling coach at Toledo University, gave a very interesting talk, while showing slides of the Olympics. A Christmas decoration contest proved to be a success. The members of the club helped with the balloting in the elections of the Junior and Senior Class officers and the Student Council.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In March the induction of new members was held. At this time recognition was made of the freshmen and sophomores who were at the top of their classes. After the induction, everyone enjoyed the party sixth hour in the teachers' cafeteria. This social event was planned by Paul Leininger and his committee. At the eighth-grade visitation, the members conducted the prospective freshmen around Libbey. This year the society has initiated recognition notices of school services over the public address system. At the end of the year the annual quiz-program was held in the auditorium. Thus it was that Libbey's National Honor Society completed another wonderful year.

PERICLEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

As an artist who views a finished portrait, so too, the Peries look upon the past year with pride. They began their activities with the Central mass meeting under the direction of co-chairmen Kaye Bache and Marlene Mickens. Farnsworth park was the scene of a fall roast, the chairman of which was Sue Jordan. The initiates, under the direction of Janet DeMars, furnished peppy entertainment for the Christmas party. This year the five literary societies joined hands to present "Blue Sophistication" at the Woman's Building. Those representing the Peries were Sandra Brown and Phyl Joan Orbesen. In March, fifteen new members were installed at an initiation tea headed by Lu Anne Moyer. To honor the Phils and the Zets, the Peries presented a variety show under the direction of Mary Flack and Sue Jordan. As spring approached, the girls paid tribute to their mothers with a tea given in the library. The school year drew to a close with the installation of the junior officers at the annual banquet.

Their adviser, Miss Ruth Dusha, gave her guidance and promotion to the year's activities. The officers were Sandra Brown, president; Phyl Joan Orbesen, vice president; Sharon O'Donnell, treasurer; Sue Jordan, recording secretary; Marcia Bruggeman, corresponding secretary; Susan Miller, chaplain; and Mary Gwen Reed, censor.

PHILAETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

"Never a dull moment," could well be said about the Philaethean Literary Society, and its work for the past year. With the purpose of the club being found in the words: scholarship, leadership, fellowship, and school spirit, the end of the year found the record book of the Phils full of accomplishments. Counseled by Miss Mark Kirk, the members proceeded to do a good job with every new event. The officers who handled well the many activities, were as follows: Carol Hischka, president; Mitzi Kohring, vice president; Bobbie Simons, treasurer; Sue Double, recording secretary; Phyllis Settles, corresponding secretary; Nancy Pasche, chaplain; Vicky Bowes, sergeant-at-arms; Barbara Walker, senior censor; and Rhea Altenbaugh, junior censor.

The first event staged by the Phils was the Waite mass meeting in which the theme was "Heaven vs. Hades." The social whirl started for the members in December with a skirt and sweater dance in the Libbey gym. Around Christmas time the girls collected money for a basket to be given to a needy family in the area. Mitzi Kohring, the representative of the club, worked on the Five Lit Dance, held at the Woman's Building. To succeed in accomplishing their literary aim, two or more junior girls gave book reviews at every meeting. At one of the meetings early this spring, Miss Fiedler told of her travels in Europe. In March, Farnsworth Park was the site for the roast, planned by Barbara Pelton. April found everyone working on the Mother's Tea which was given in the Libbey Cafeteria. The Banquet was the last event of the season and was well planned by Virginia Potter, chairman. Thus it was that this society ended one of its finest years.

ZETALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

"Nihil sine labore" (Nothing without work!) is the motto of the Zets. Under the direction of their advisers, Miss Grace DeLisle, Miss Eileen Eberth, and Mrs. Eleanore Dzialok, the Zets have strived to carry out the purposes of their club: to teach good fellowship, consideration of others, the value of co-operation, and commendable school spirit; to promote participation in literary meetings; and to develop leadership. The topic for the year was "Personality Quotients."

The DeVilbiss mass meeting was the first project of the year with Pat Mallory and June Shepler co-chairmen. The theme was "Flapper-Time Football." Pat Fearnside and Margaret Eppard were in charge of the annual Mother's Tea in the Libbey library in February. Miss Payne gave a very enlightening talk on people who had influenced her life. Jackie Noss and June Shepler represented the Zets on the committee for the Five-lit dance, "Blue Sophistication." June Shepler led a sock hop, "Hillbilly Hoedown," in the Libbey gym in March. Rough initiation, under the direction of Beverly Eden and Shirley Burkhardt, was held in the spring. The annual banquet in May concluded a worthwhile year. The following were the officers for the year: Jackie Noss, president; June Shepler, vice president; Sharon Fauble, recording secretary; Pat Mallory, corresponding secretary; Nancy Fisher, chaplain; Muriel Paepflow, Treasurer; Evelyn Houghton, sergeant-at-arms; Pat Fearnside, historian; and Janet Becker, censor.

"Over the top in everything" well describes the Forum's activities for the year. There were social events galore, starting with rough initiation of pledges in December. The committee for this was headed by Ken Myers and Jon Haverman. With the new members duly installed, the club got down to business. They then made plans for a dance in the gym on January 23, "The Semester Swing," with Don Garner as chairman. Bernie Wineland and Wayne Kakela represented the Forum on the Five Lit Dance Committee. In May the boys innovated a dinner dance for the graduating seniors. Their spring roast and all-day outing was a big success, as was their fund raising project for selling tags at the Libbey-Waite football game.

Although the Forum is a club which enjoys social events, its primary purpose is to benefit the school. The Forum has long promoted citizenship, leadership, and service to Libbey. Mr. William Wirick, The Forum's new adviser, has done a splendid job in helping the club. The officers of the year were Jim Wassmund, president; Wayne Kakela, vice-president; Jim Reardon, secretary; Bernie Wineland, treasurer; and Bill Findley, sergeant-at-arms. These officers and the members of the club have kept the name of the Forum high at Libbey.

QUILL AND DAGGER

"To generate the will to serve" is the motto of the Quill and Dagger Literary Society. The purpose of this organization is to discover and encourage original talent, as well as promoting an enlightened leadership. They sparked the season of Halloween by presenting the ever popular "QD Shindig." Dave Frayer assisted with the lighting and decorating. In addition to the annual Shindig, they jointly sponsored the Five Lit Dance at the Woman's Building. Jack Runyan's orchestra furnished the music for a wonderful "Blue Sophistication." Tom Funka and Ron Long represented the QD's on the dance committee. Christmas right around the corner, the club wished to continue its benevolence program to a needy family. With contributions from all, the basket was sent, conveying the joy and happiness of the Christmas season to eleven deserving people.

With the new year came the pledging of new members. Dale Spratt was committee chairman for this event. Twenty-one new members were inducted after an interesting evening of initiation in the lower hall of Libbey. The annual roast was held at Farnsworth Park where much fun was had by all. During the course of the evening, the outcome of the election of next year's officers was announced. This year's officers were: Ron Long, president; Tom Funka, vice president; Dick Slicker, secretary; Pete Finch, treasurer; and Dale Spratt, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Charles Robinson, the jovial and understanding adviser, will long be remembered as another year of wonderful events turn into pleasant memories.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR HI-Y

With the purpose of the Hi-Y clubs being, "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," the groups at Libbey again had an excellent year. Their adviser, Mr. Hendricks, along with the officers: Dave Frayer, president; Elden Eckhart, vice president; Pete Finch, secretary; Wayne Kakela, treasurer, led the club. In May, the Mother and Son Banquet was held at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church where Reverend Copeland was the speaker. Dick Recht and Kenny Myers were the senior delegates to the Youth Government Program held at Columbus. Along with the Senior Y-Teens the Hi-Y helped sponsor the Lenten Services. Dr. Nicolas T. Goncheroff spoke to the Libbey students interested in human relations. Some participated in the ground-breaking of the new South Side Y. They also raised money for the world service fund.

Directed by Mr. Needles the Junior Hi-Y completed another year of accomplishments. The officers were: Frank Pauly, president; Ed Mauntler, vice president; Dave Wyland, secretary; Dick Howland, treasurer; and Ned Neal, chaplain. During the course of the year, the boys enjoyed nine swimming sessions at the Central Y. The weekend of February 7 and 8 found them at Camp Storer in Michigan. With the other Hi-Y's, they sponsored Dr. Goncheroff, who spoke to the Libbey students. The two Junior representatives for the Youth Government Program were Frank Pauly and Ed Mauntler.

Endeavoring to maintain their motto which is before them, the Sophomore Hi-Y completed a splendid year. Along with Mr. Vanderwulp, their adviser, the officers: Dave Wetcher, president; Wayne Oestreich, vice president; Jack Frayer, secretary; Ronald Ward, treasurer; Art Funka chaplain; did a fine job of directing this club. Besides enjoying a swim one evening the boys attended Open House at the Y. M. C. A. early this spring. With the help of the other Hi-Y groups they sponsored Dr. Nicolas Goncheroff, who spoke to the Libbey student body. An enjoyable time was spent at Camp Nelson Dodd, a Y training camp in southern Ohio. It can well be said that the purpose of this club has been followed this year.

With the platform of "Clean living, clean athletics, clean speech, and scholarship," the Freshman Hi-Y has been able to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school, home and community, high standards of Christian character. This new club has proved that they will be the leaders of Libbey tomorrow. Through their efforts a new skating pond was created and paid for at the Y site on the Anthony Wayne Trail. Under the supervision of their adviser, Mr. Keifer, the boys had a candy sale, selling one hundred and thirty pounds of Salt Water Taffy. Meetings were held twice monthly, alternately at Libbey and the Central Y. M. C. A. The officers of the club were: Terry MacDonald, president; Tom Smith, vice president; Wayne Schutt, secretary; Harold Wagner, treasurer; and Jim Telb, chaplain.

ACTIVITIES—UNITED NATIONS

The many activities that the student body attend throughout the year, must be supervised by someone; Mr. Martin has officiated in this capacity very successfully. Activities tickets under the direction of Delores Martin, were put on sale immediately after school began and, as usual, the athletic office "buzzed" with excitement. Those who assisted Mr. Martin sold tickets to the athletic events Libbey represented and they also sold coke and candy at the basketball games. Edelian sales began shortly after Christmas with Sue Jordan heading the Circulation. Marilyn Hartzell, Barbara Hayton and Nancy Rueter assisted her. Jeanne Pommeranz, helped by Nancy Rueter, took charge of the Advertising for the yearbook. The Rhythm Round-Up dominated the time of the activities workers toward the closing of the year. Another year of service for the name Libbey, and for the student body that makes up that name, had been completed.

Keeping alive the motto, "Peace to the World," the Libbey United Nations Club increased their activities this year. These included participation in the Toledo United Nations Association, collection of money for food for students in Korea, movies on various phases of the U.N., the Armistice Day program, and the model UNESCO, held in April at the University of Toledo. As a contribution to the school they are making a continuing scrapbook on the U.N. and the U.N. club at Libbey. A banquet for all members and advisers was held in May. Co-advisers Miss Grace Irwin and Mr. Roscoe Baker were assisted by Bob Dailey, president; Ruth Benson, vice president; Vicky Bowes, secretary; Dick Gardner, treasurer; and Pete Stroup, chaplain.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

The Senior Y-Teens have again this year presented many worthwhile projects to Libbey and our community with the assistance of their capable and friendly adviser, Miss Allen. The officers who also contributed much to the club's success were Kaye Bache, president; Sue Double, vice president; Sue Kabel and Louise Thomas, secretaries; Sharon Fauble, treasurer; Ruth Benson, chaplain; Jackie Wolever, representative, and Beverly Schnable, program chairman. The annual football banquet in honor of the varsity team and their parents began the year for the girls. Following soon after was the Scott mass-meeting with a western theme. Mitzi Kohring and her committee arranged a splendid Christmas program with the Reverend Hackenberg of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church as the guest speaker. A successful basketball dance was held in January with Mary Gwen Reed and La Donna Taylor serving as co-chairmen. Again this year, the Senior Y-Teens joined with the Senior Hi-Y in presenting seven Lenten programs.

Money-making projects included selling Christmas cards, mistletoe, candy, and the traditional chrysanthemums at Thanksgiving. Thanks go to Louise Thomas, who contributed a poster to the City-Wide Poster Contest for the Y.W.C.A., and also decorated a window at Christmas. Boy-Girl Relations was the topic of a talk given by Mrs. Taylor, of the Y.W.C.A. at a spring meeting.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

Under the guidance of their advisers, Miss Russel and Mrs. Fitzpatrick, the club has sought to keep in mind to "unite members in the spirit of friendliness and service" and "to be friends with all people of all races, religions, and nationalities." Orchids go to the capable officers who led the club to success: Janie Fenner, president; Nancy Reuter, vice president; Margie Saccucci, treasurer; Kathy McCarthy, secretary; Margie Featheringill, chaplain; and Arlene Baird, sergeant-at-arms.

The club began their year with a joint installation banquet which was held at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church for all the Y-Teen clubs at Libbey and the mothers of the members. A peppy mass meeting depicting a hayride, was presented for the benefit of the football team last fall. In November a food basket was filled to please some needy family on Thanksgiving. In April the club held a swimming party and potluck dinner at the Y.W.C.A. An educational tour through the downtown jail was made in the spring. Speakers during the year included Mrs. Staebell, a representative from the Y.W.C.A., who explained some of the duties and services performed by this national organization, and Miss Walters, an employee of the Florence Crittenden Home.

SOPHOMORE Y-TEENS

"To grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities; and to grow in the knowledge and love of God" is the purpose of the Sophomore Y-Teens. With the assistance of their adviser, Miss Haney, the capable leadership of the officers, and the co-operation of its members, the Sophomore Y-Teens have done a fine job of achieving their goal. The officers for the year were Judy Hawley, president; Margie Kravatsky, vice president; Tam Townsend, secretary; Esther Fleming, treasurer; Nancy Walker, chaplain; and Nancy Ohler, representative.

The main social activities for the girls included a Christmas party at the new Y.W.C.A., with a pot-luck supper, splash party, and gift exchange, under the chairmanship of Nancy Hunt; a basketball dance after the Libbey-Woodward game; and a tea held April 30 under the chairmanship of Nancy Ohler. A joint splash party with the Sophomore Hi-Y was enjoyed. At Christmas the club collected food for a basket which was given to a needy family. Later in the year scrapbooks and fruit were taken to St. Anthony's Orphanage as a goodwill project. Two fudge sales were held during the year to increase the treasury.

F. N. A.—RED CROSS

"To learn to be of service to others, and to stimulate interest in nursing as a profession" is the fitting theme which the Future Nurses ably carried out. A very interesting and event filled year was planned by a group of officers: Sharon LeGron, president; Janice Gibson, vice president; Nancy Gibson, secretary; Sally Kirschner, treasurer. Their excellent advisers were Mrs. Baird and Miss Kelso. Sally Kirschner was chairman for the faculty tea held in December. The girls visited several hospitals in Toledo. In March they attended the capping ceremonies at Toledo Hospital School of Nursing. Different speakers talked to the girls about their careers; among them were student nurses, an airline hostess, and Mrs. Carson who talked on "District Nursing." Mr. Abel gave his views on flower arranging. To make money for scholarships the girls sold apples, cards, and scouring cloths. In other words, these girls had a busy year.

Again this year the Junior Red Cross did a wonderful job of living up to their motto, "We serve." Directed by Miss Virginia May, the society accomplished many service projects. Serving locally, nationally, and internationally, they did much to help the shut-ins during the holiday season. They sent tray favors, candy, and good used magazines to the local institutions. Puzzles in hand-decorated boxes were sent to the stricken children there. The officers who did an excellent job this year were Walter Brown, president; Sue Gordan, vice-president; Carol Nickelson, secretary; Rosetta Byrd, treasurer. "To serve humanity everywhere" is certainly an appropriate purpose for this fine organization.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

"He profits most who serves best." This is the motto of the Future Business Leaders of America. The purpose of the club is to bring about a better understanding and co-operation among the business students, and to help a person take responsibility for carrying out tasks that are a credit to his school and community. In order to provide money for their numerous social events and also to give them experience in selling, the club sold candy, floor wax, cookies, pens, and shorthand dictionaries. A representative from the Merle Norman Studio gave a cosmetic demonstration. At another meeting, the girls who work in the main office gave a report on their everyday duties. The state convention of the Future Business Leaders of America was held in Mansfield, Ohio. Eight girls, Mrs. Houser and Miss Haney attended. N.O.M.A. Educational Night Banquet was attended by Nancy Bartz, Roberta Jefferds, and Juanita Schoreder. Dr. Knepper, the state representative to national F.B.L.A., spoke at the initiation.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The social events for the year started out with a Halloween party at the Scott Park shelter house. Next came an exciting trip through the Wonder Bread Bakery. On November 26, a party was held for the orphans at the Miami Children's Home. The co-chairmen for this event were Joyce Frank and Ann Fanoff. This was followed by a wonderful Christmas party in the Libbey cafeteria. Later that month came the inevitable initiation of new members. April 22 marked the date for the banquet which was held at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. Renee Strobel was chairman. The season's events were concluded with the freshman roast at Walbridge Park. The officers for the year were Nancy Bartz, president; Renee Strobel, vice-president; Roberta Jefferds, secretary; Mary Baldwin, Treasurer. The advisers for the year were Mrs. Houser, Mrs. Flatz, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Baird, Miss Haney, Mr. Needles, Miss Payne and Mr. Rusie.

BAND

Strike up the band! A fast moving, high stepping band is enjoyed by all. Libbey's spirited band stimulated those whose hearts beat high at the sight of the flashing blue and gold. Our band, of which we are justly proud, has been an asset to Libbey in many ways. Providing music at mass meetings, football games, and activity programs in the auditorium, the musical members were busy throughout the year. The band also accompanied the student body on the excursion to Cleveland Shaw, and under the able and understanding direction of Mr. Harold McClure, raised the spirits of the team in spite of defeat.

CHOIR

Of Libbey's many organizations, one of the best known to both teachers and students is the Choir. The purpose of the Choir is "to perform for school and civic functions, to give students a chance to sing with proper techniques, and to acquire skill in the reading of music." The Choir had over seventy members this year, and among them were many with fine solo voices. Mr. Harold McClure directed and conducted the Choir, and the officers for the year were Dave Frayer, president; William Bush, vice president; Carol Hischka, secretary-treasurer; Richard Simmons, sergeant-at-arms; and assistant director, William Bush. The annual roast was planned by a committee headed by Don Lukert.

Everyone looked forward especially to the Choir's beautiful contributions to our Lenten services, held every Friday during Lent, and their fine work brought many compliments from our speakers. Other activities included participation in the annual Choir Festival held at the Peristyle of the Toledo Museum of Art; an exchange concert with Waite High School; and a special program for the eighth grade visitation day. The active and interesting program of the Choir this year and every year has inspired many to join it not only to enjoy its opportunities for a musical education, but to sing with many others who find it a thrilling experience.

BIOLOGY

"To strive for a wider knowledge and a great appreciation of all natural life": this is the purpose of the Biology Club. The many activities of the club not only fulfill this purpose, but include service projects and social events. During the year the club donated a tree to Lincolnshire Park, and sent a Care package to a needy family in Hellsinki, Finland. At one of the meetings Miss Pickard spoke about Biology Club Field Day, and a movie was shown.

The officers for the year were Dick Atkinson, president; Beverly Schnabel, vice president; Ruth Benson, secretary; and Anita Thompson, treasurer. Miss Lasetta Pickard and Miss Lydia Fiedler advised the club in its many successful projects. The first social event was a roast at Walbridge Park in October. There was a Christmas party in December, and the club sponsored a dance after the Scott basketball game. In February the club held a fudge sale as a money making project, and everyone enjoyed a splash party held at the Y.W.C.A. in April. The final event was the banquet on May 22, and advisers, officers, and members agreed that the Biology Club had had an interesting and progressive year.

STUDENT COUNCIL—F. T. A.

The Student Council's main objective is to be of service to Libbey. Problems of all kinds are brought to the attention of the council, and, if possible, settled. This year the council sponsored the Community Chest drive and the "Good Sportsmanship Week" as well as the magazine drive in which the goal was exceeded. It helped manage the freshman Student Council elections, and the election of a Thanksgiving Day queen. The council also helped with the eighth grade visitation, and guarded the stairways before school. Among their social functions were the dance after the Libbey-Central game, the dinner after the successful magazine drive, the Area Student Council dance "Rhapsody in Rhythm," and the spring roast. The officers for the year were: Pat Mallory, president; Jim Wassmund, vice president; June Shepler, secretary-treasurer; and Wayne Kakela, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Henderson, adviser of the Student Council, deserves commendation for her capable assistance.

The year's activities for the Future Teachers of America were begun by a successful sale of Libbey Cowboy bookcovers. The members represented Libbey in several educational functions and entertained the faculty at one of their meetings. The three advisers, Miss Dusha, Miss Foster, and Mr. Rusie, set an inspirational example for the members and were honored at the annual banquet held at the Delft House on March 26, under the supervision of Gladys Jeakle. A splash party was held on April 18 with Janet DeMars as chairman. The officers were: Shirley Kaiser, president; Bonnie Sutton, vice president; Gladys Jeakle, secretary; Sue McLaughlin, treasurer; Pat Thornton, historian and librarian; Sharon Mann, parliamentarian; Janet DeMars, song leader.

CLASSICAL HONOR—JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The Classical Honor Society, along with the Junior Classical League is directed by Mrs. Pauline Burton. The purpose of the Classical Honor is to give students recognition for excellence in Latin. Led by their officers, Donald Robb, president; and Virginia Potter, secretary-treasurer, the club again kept their ideals before them. Last fall, Mr. Packer gave an illustrated lecture to the members. Again this year, both organizations combined their activities for successful accomplishments.

"Scientia arx saeculorum": "Knowledge, a Citadel of the Ages" is the motto of the Junior Classical League. The officers of the past year were Darryl Hawn, president; Robert Price, vice president; and Barbara Vogelpohl, records. The year started with a picnic in the fall. Later there was a Christmas party, and in the early spring, the annual induction banquet when all those attending wear Roman costumes. Care packages, contributions to the March of Dimes and Crusade for Freedom, were among the service projects which this group carried out. Some educational trips were taken in Toledo besides the annual jaunt to the University of Michigan. Two delegates were sent to the annual convention in Ohio of the Junior Classical League. All of the members helped in publicizing Latin Week by making charts, writing letters to the Toledo Blade, putting models in the trophy case, and wearing red ties during the celebration.

DRAMATICS

Seldom do students have the opportunity to display and develop their dramatic abilities. However, with the purpose of giving its members practical experience in the interpreting and producing of plays, and to promote interest in the dramatic activities of the school, the Dramatics Club tends to develop these talents. Miss Costigan, the adviser of the club, was proud of the achievements accomplished this year. Illuminated before the footlights of Libbey's stage were the one act plays "Ghost In The House" followed in February by "Jinx from Alabama." With a well experienced cast, the Senior play, "I Remember Mama," was so well performed that it will long live in the memories of those who saw it. This and the Junior play, "Henrietta the VIII," which also deserves high acknowledgement, were both sponsored by the club.

Commencing the social year with a combination roast and hayride at Side-Cut Park, the club got off to a smooth start. At Christmas, the members took the task of decorating a window to heighten the holiday spirit. The most outstanding achievement by the Dramatics Club of 1953 was the purchase of a new rug for the school stage. A new policy granting a scholarship to a deserving member who plans to study dramatics was adopted by the club. The annual banquet was held April 25 at Williamsen's in Maumee, Ohio. Afterwards, everyone attended a play presented at Bowling Green University. Presiding at the meetings and functions were the officers: Larry Herold, president; Janet Noss, vice president; Jackie Wolever, recording secretary; Carolyn Cooper, corresponding secretary; and Ron Gibson, treasurer.

DEANS AIDES—CAFETERIA

Chosen for their scholarship, dependability, and efficiency, the office helpers and the deans' aides carry out a vital part of the school's business. The office helpers are selected by the principal because they have shown proficiency in business skills. Their assistance is valuable to the school and in turn they receive practical experience in office procedure. The other group continually helped the deans, Mr. Osgood and Miss Kaney, in collecting attendance, recording absences, filing excuses, phoning to homes of absentees, and running errands to the classrooms. The year was concluded effectively by the deans and their helpers getting together for a social gathering in the spring. Both groups have functioned very well during the past.

"Anything worth doing is worth doing well," is the appropriate motto by which the Cafeteria Student Service operates. Under the guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Elwing, Cafeteria Manager; and Miss Aileen Eberth, Supervisor of Cafeteria Student Service, the students perform duties which help make the lunch hour a time of pleasure for all. The organization proposes to show that real school spirit is a daily activity of co-operation, good fellowship, and pride in accomplishment. Students participating in this service receive daily a warm student lunch as a token of appreciation.

G. A. A.

To give girls an opportunity to participate in intramural games is the purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association, and certainly, those girls who participate have a wonderful time playing "the game." Their capable adviser, Miss Meyers, not only directs but plays as well. The officers who led the club throughout a splendid year were Mary Flack, president; Bobbie Simons, vice president; and Vickie Bowes, secretary-treasurer. In January many of the girls enjoyed a volleyball playday sponsored by the girls at Woodward High School. On April 25, a number of the members attended the Bowling Green Sports Day at Bowling Green University. Softball, swimming, volleyball were on the agenda for the day. In May, the annual spring roast was held.

The season started for the girls when they played volleyball and conducted a tournament. Then came basketball, a game at which many of the girls became proficient. After this tournament ended, a little bit of volleyball was played until the weather permitted recreation outside. Then the girls played softball till the end of the year. Thus a sport-filled year was completed by the members of G.A.A.

Director of Activities

The difficult task of arranging game schedules and conducting the financial business pertaining to the management of the athletic and activities department has been worked out effectfully through the past year by Mr. Charles Martin. His position requires skill and tact, as well as ability, and as he has progressed from one important project to another, he has deserved much gratitude from all at Libbey. Assisting him in bookkeeping, Mr. Orville Henrion has also spent much time in the care of equipment.

Administration

CHUCK ROBINSON
Assistant Varsity Football Coach

Constantly alert and enthusiastic in his position as assistant football coach, Mr. Robinson did much throughout the season to encourage the team and stimulate them to successful efforts. The difficult job of training the undergraduates for the final entrance into the varsity squad was ably performed by Al Jeffery and Don Harris, coaches of the Lightweight Squad; and Bill Wirick and Phil Moses, coaches of the Freshmen Squads.

Again to Coach Harding go our congratulations for a champion football team for Libbey. However, to the squad members has come much more than the winning of games. From Mr. Harding they have received training in good sportsmanship and in the development of moral stamina that will influence them throughout their lives. The Senior Class extends to Mr. Harding their thanks and best wishes.

and Coaches

Much care was given to our athletes during the year by a fine group of doctors which included Dr. R. C. Young; Dr. Wilmarth Paine; Dr. C. Lewis Stevens; and Dr. H. R. Corbin.

The basketball season is a strenuous time at Libbey for Coach Al Jeffery who spends many hours and much energy with the varsity squad. Coaching the Reserves was Leo Campey. Phil Moses managed the new recruits on the Freshman team. All of the men do a splendid job in training their young charges.

You Are Cordially Invited . . .

Maybe it's a progressive dinner, a theater party or a sightseeing tour—whatever the occasion chartered service will add to the pleasure of the guests.

Expensive? No, indeed. On the contrary you will find that compared with other forms of travel, chartered service is very reasonable.

It is given to only a few to use their life span to benefit all generations to come after them . . . Such was the gift of Thomas Alva Edison, pioneer in applying electricity to better the lot of mankind.

We are proud to bear his name

Only a holder of the original Edison license may use the name "Edison" as part of its corporation title. It is the mark of a pioneer. The Toledo Edison Company, a business-managed, tax-paying, self-supporting electric power company, is so proud to be so honored . . . In this our 50th Anniversary Year we renew our pledge to serve our customers to the very best of our ability.
